“ I send my belated sympathy. I just recently realized who Barb was. I'm so sorry for your loss. I have been in conversation with Lee and she has been mourning the loss of a dear friend, Barb. So I reread the obits and I now, have lost a special acquaintance. We never exchanged names when I worked at Pizza Hut years ago. But Barb, Dallas, and Lee would come in a lot to eat. I remember talking to Barb at Heartland when Dallas was there. Again, no names exchanged. Lee has been telling me about Barb for a few months, and let me know of her illness and death. Such a fine woman. I observed first hand her treatment of Dallas. Dignity, respect, and laughter. I have found the Bible to be comforting at times like this. Our Creator cares about us all. When we experience a loved one's death it is very traumatic. There is a positive hope for the future found in the Bible. But what about the here and now? Philippians 4:6,7 encourages us: "Pray to Our Creator with petitions and thanksgiving and the peace of God that surpasses all understanding will guard your heart and mental powers by means of Christ Jesus." So when daily activities can be so overwhelming, a small prayer to God will allow Him to calm your heart and ease your emotions when no one else can. May God's Word supply comfort at this time. More comfort for the mourning can be found at www.jw.org.

“ My Aunt Barbara was a very strong lady. She was equally kind and compassionate. I admired her for the love and caring for my cousin, the late Dallas Rumsey, as well as being such a good friend to so many people. I had many years of fun growing up and visiting Barb's home in Jones. She made a pretty good jar of preserves. I am a better man having had the chance to grow up with Aunt Barb in my life. She is now going to spend some time with Mom, Dad, and Dallas in the Promised Land.

With all of my love,

Bill Nevala (Ulrich) of Rochester, Minnesota
